GROUP DISCUSSIONS

We are happy to introduce LeadDIVERSITY! This year-long program is designed to build a network of leaders dedicated to creating localized solutions to diversity and inclusion opportunities in Nebraska. During this program, leaders will engage in topics that will leave them well-versed and experienced in anticipating diversity and inclusion needs in the workplace as well as in the community. LeadDIVERSITY participants (referred to as Advocates) receive exceptional skills training to move Nebraska workplaces and communities forward. They will work together on a diversity, equity and inclusion focused service project highlighting the imperative nature of implementing serious social change. LeadDIVERSITY will redefine leadership both for the individuals who participate and the organizations and businesses they represent.

WHY SHOULD I / MY EMPLOYEE PARTICIPATE?

Participants Gain:

- A greater awareness of personal identity as well as the impact of in-group and out-group dynamics.
- An expanded knowledge of local experts, organizations, and resources.
- A tool kit for addressing issues of diversity in personal and professional settings.
- An ability to be an advocate for diversity and inclusion.

Organizations Gain:

- An increased pool of involved and educated diversity leaders.
- Employees with an increased understanding of the connection between inclusion and organizational success.
- Employees with enhanced organizational leadership skills and a vision for the future.

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

LeadDIVERSITY Advocates are leaders representing nonprofit, corporate, government, education, civic, and community organizations, with a passion for diversity, equity, and inclusion.
